believe that social injustices exist in our society and culture?

Social Justice Issues That Speak to Our Congregation

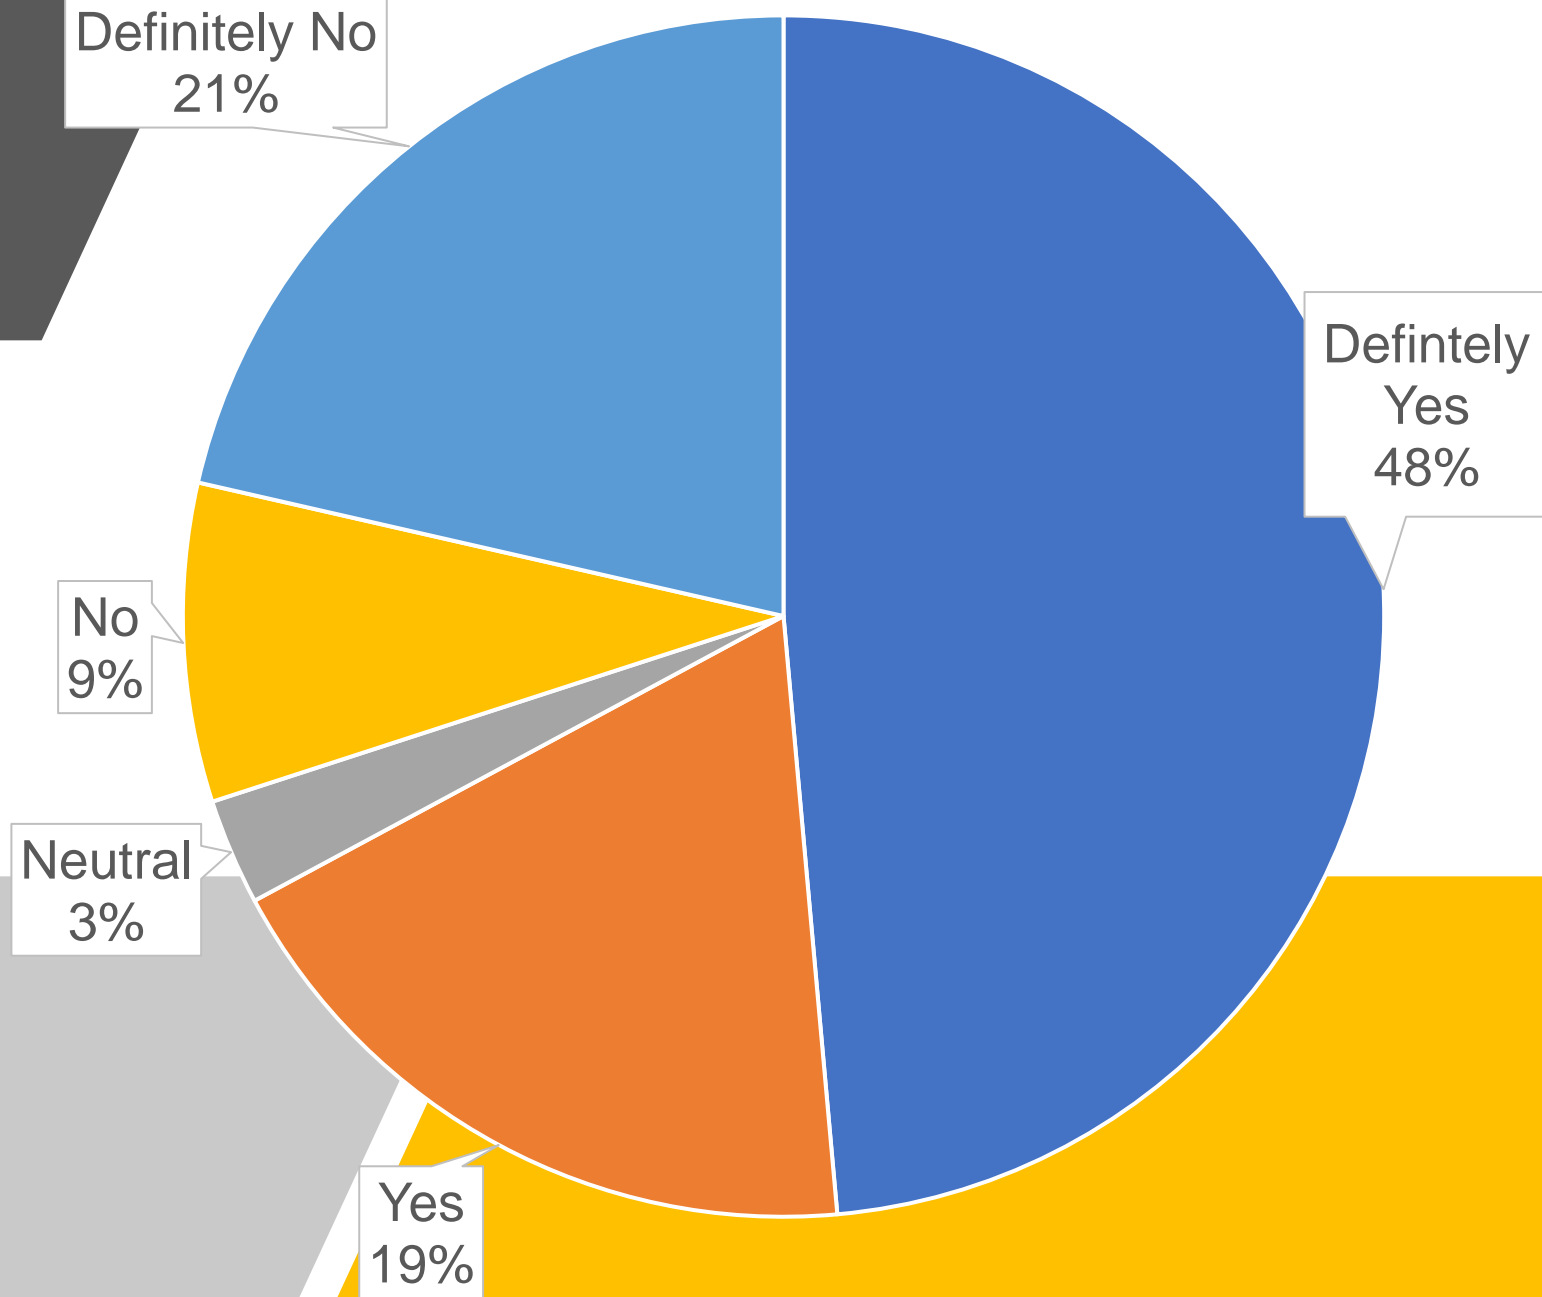

Age Discrimination      Welfare

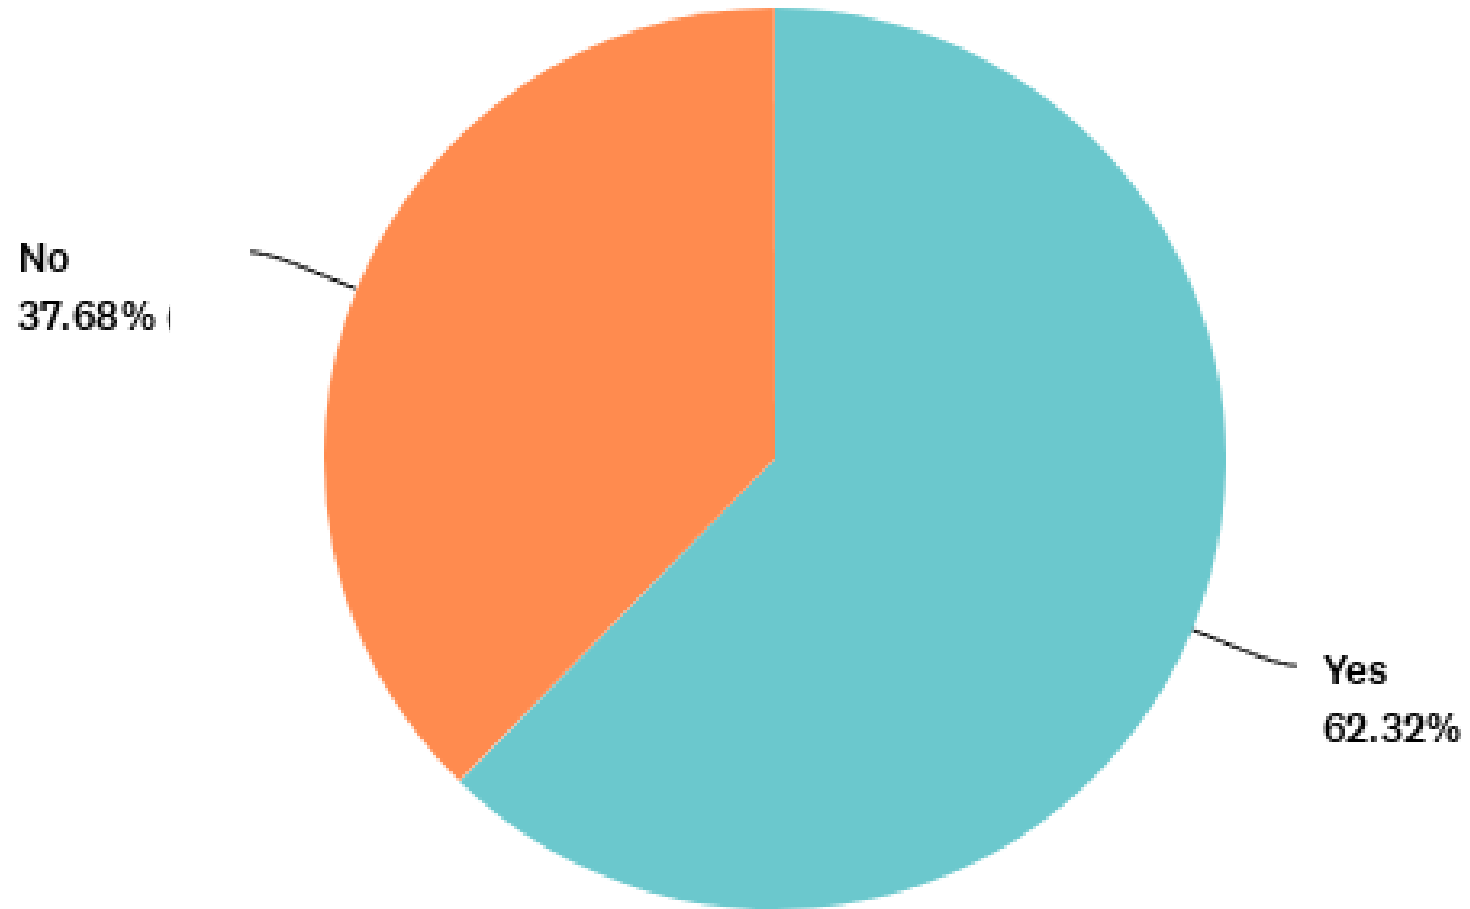

Hunger      Lack of Respect      Education

Disability Discrimination      Abuse to Women and Children      Criminal Justice Corruption

Do you feel a sense of personal responsibility for the types of social injustices that have given rise to recent unrest and protests in our country?

Are you doing anything different in your life to address social injustices around you?

Are you open to learning more about social injustices in our community and beyond?

Do you believe that we, as a congregation, acknowledge the existence of social injustices in our society?

Do you believe that the addressing of social injustices should be part of the mission of the church today?

Do you have any ideas to help fight social injustices within our church and larger community?

- Support local and national agencies that address social justice issues
- Educate & raise the congregation's awareness of social injustices
- Create a community garden
- Support local protests
- Partner with other churches
- Conversations on LGBTQIA rights
- Involve/educate children & youth
- Shelter & feed homeless

Additional Thoughts from the Congregation

- Time to get serious and say “enough”
- Keep momentum
- Do additional surveys
- Pray & show God’s love
- Involve all ages and have conversations/discussions/actions
- Preach from the Bible with no politics
- Learn more about other cultures
- Address social injustices of Native Americans
