HOLY COMMUNION
Sunday, December 3
Sunday, December 24

My favorite line of Scripture comes out of the readings for this season. “Mary kept all these things and pondered them in her heart.” The account in Luke’s telling of the Christmas story contrasts Mary and the shepherds; they came upon the invitation of the angels to see the newborn...the smelly, ragtag sheep watchers. They were frightened by the sudden host in the heavens, then surprised by the invitation; yet they ventured forth to see the newborn (Well, most of them ventured or they took turns because you never, ever leave sheep alone!), and they returned to their fields glorifying and praising God. The comment is that the shepherds went and saw, and it was just as they were told it would be.

Mary, on the other hand, was a new mom, weary from birthing and hardly in a place to entertain company sent by angels. She was also a reflective, pondering sort of gal who kept ideas to herself. After all, women weren’t expected to have opinions.

“Pondering” sets a tone of openness to a variety of interpretations and meanings. Rolling something around in one’s mind is praised; finding meanings under the surface meaning is relished. We don’t hear much more about Mary until she is at the foot of the cross – what is she pondering at the crucifixion of her son?

So now I ask you, how does Mary’s example of pondering relate to the experiences of today at Grace First Church? Life changed dramatically for Mary; it has also changed for our congregation. If you have a few moments here and there, ponder. Reflect on the way things have been and the possibilities for how it can be.

In early January your officers and your pastors will be meeting to plan the future for this congregation. Please share your thoughts, your hopes, and your dreams with them. Our officers are very dedicated to listening to our congregation as they seek to find God’s way into the future – the two concepts of listening and stepping forward are deeply related. Exercise your faith this season and allow yourself to ponder. Ah, the depths of joy!

In Christ,
Pastor Edie

FROM THE ASSOCIATE PASTOR

Reflections Psalm 104

“Time to reflect.” That would be my answer to the question: “What do you like most about the end of the year?” Time to stand in front of a full-length mirror of memory and study the scene. Thoughtfully. Silently. Alone. To trace the outline of the past without the rude interruption of routine tasks. Taking time to stop and listen...and think.

Invariably, those occasions leave me feeling grateful to God. Often, I end up thanking Him for something or someone specifically that He provided in the yesterday of my life that makes my today much more meaningful.

The Giving Tree written by Phil Silverstein is a simple, fanciful piece about a tree that loved a boy. And yet it caused me to pause and take a moment.

When the boy was young, he swung from the tree’s branches climbed all over her, ate her apples, slept in her shade. Such happy, carefree days. The tree loved those years. But as the boy grew, he spent less and less time with the tree. “Come on, let’s play,” invited the tree on one occasion, but the young man was interested in money. “Take my apples and sell them,” said the tree. He did, and the tree was happy. He didn’t return for a long time, but the tree smiled when he passed by one day. “Come on, let’s play!” But the man was older and tired of his world. He wanted to get away from it all. “Cut me down. Take my large trunk and make yourself a boat. Then you can sail away,” said the tree. The man did, and the tree was happy. Many seasons passed – and the tree waited. Finally, the old man returned, too old and tired to play, to pursue riches, or to sail the seas. “I have a pretty good stump left, my friend. Why don’t you just sit down here and rest?” said the tree. He did, and the tree was happy.

How many Giving Trees have there been in our lives? How many have released part of themselves so that we might grow, accomplish goals, find wholeness and satisfaction? How many times have we been Giving Trees to others? Take time to thank God for the many people who have come into your life.

YOUTH SCHEDULE FOR DECEMBER

- Sunday, December 3 — Kids Against Hunger Packing at St. Barnabus, leave after church
- Sunday, December 10— Youth Christmas, White Elephant Party at 5 p.m.

M A R I A L I C E ' S M U S I C N O T E S

Music abounds during the Advent and Christmas season. This is always such a special time for Christians. Not only do we prepare for the birth of our Lord but also celebrate that birth with such joyful and meaningful music.

The Children's Music Ministry has a special treat this year. Linda Young has written a delightful musical for the children. The Mouse in the Manger presents Jesus' birth from the view of a tiny mouse. There are solos, many costumes and much music for all of us to enjoy. We are most appreciative to Myrlan Coleman for sharing her artistic talent and providing us with a delightful drawing that will be on the cover of the program. This musical will be presented on Sunday, December 10, at morning worship.

Our annual Service of Lessons and Carols will take place on Sunday, December 17, at morning worship. This special time reminds us of the prophecy of the birth of our Lord in the passages from the Old Testament and the fulfillment of those seers of old in the New Testament. The service will include Scriptures, carols, anthems. The service will close with "And the Glory of the Lord" from Handel's Messiah.

On Christmas Eve, we will again have special guest harpist, Sydney Howell. Sydney will begin the Opening Voluntary at 6:45 of carols on the harp and she will play again at Communion. The Sanctuary Choir will be singing three anthems for this candlelight service. Make your plans to be here early to hear this special music.

SCHEDULE FOR CHERUB AND CAROL CHOIRS

Wednesday, November 29, rehearsal for both Choirs at 4:00-5:00. (Snacks at 3:30)

Wednesday, December 6, rehearsal for both choirs at 4:00-5:00. (Again, snacks)

Saturday, December 9, Dress Rehearsal at 10:00-11:30. MOST IMPORTANT!

Sunday, December 10, Please be at the Church by 9:15 for warm-up and getting costumes.

After the presentation in worship, the children will have lunch in the Great Hall, get their costumes back on and go to Keeneland to sing the music in the musical. The children did this last year and it was greatly received by the residents.

Both children's choir will then be on holiday until Logos resumes on January 10.

SCHEDULE FOR SANCTUARY HANDBELLS

Rehearsals on November 28, December 5, December 12. We ring for Lessons and Carols December 17. Sanctuary Handbells are then on holiday until January 2.

SCHEDULE FOR SANCTUARY CHOIR

Rehearsals as usual on December 6, 13, 20.

Warm-up rehearsals on Sunday, December 17, 10:00 and Christmas Eve, 6:00 p.m.

No rehearsal on December 27. Rehearsals resume on Wednesday, January 3

Thank you to each singer and ringer in our ensembles. Thank you to parents, grand-parents and other helpers who bring the children for their rehearsals and presentations. We appreciate your time and talents to help make this season special for the Grace First Congregation.

The Littlest Wiseman

The Littlest Wiseman, a play pageant of the nativity, is presented as a Christmas Gift to the community by the Dorothy Shaw Bell Choir through the Welsh Foundation. The play is over 50 years old, and will be performed in the Scott Theater across from Amon Carter Museum on West Lancaster St. in Fort Worth from December 3-11. The play and handbells together are about an hour long, and it is free, but reservations need to be made. The only cost now is parking.

Many members of the church have seen this play and highly recommend it. For more information, check out their website <http://www.thelittlestwiseman.org>.

USO CARE PACKAGES

The Mission & Outreach Ministry will be collecting monetary donations during November (deadline December 4) for the USO Care packages to be sent to military troops stationed overseas in time for Christmas. The Care Packages include items such as pre-paid phone cards, sunscreen, travel size toiletries, disposable cameras, and messages of support and encouragement. This is a great way to show the troops deployed around the world they have not been forgotten.

All funds donated will be matched by the church's Mission Fund. Please make checks out to Grace First with "USO Care Packages" noted on the memo line.

MANNA UPDATE EMPHASIS FOR DECEMBER

Any and all canned goods, including canned fruits, vegetables, soups, and 1lb bags of rice and pinto beans, 1 lb boxes of spaghetti

Please put your donations in the grocery cart in the narthex each Sunday or bring by the church office during the week.

DECEMBER EVENTS

10

CHILDREN'S MUSIC MINISTRY PAGEANT

Sunday, December 10. The Children's Music Ministry will present The Mouse in the Manger. After the children present the musical for the congregation, they will have lunch, get back into their costumes and present the songs for the residents of Keeneland.

THIRD SUNDAY LUNCH

Sunday, December 17, after worship in the Great Hall. Bring a potluck dish to share and stay for good food and good fellowship.

CHRISTMAS CAROLING

Kids, youth, and adults please join us on Sunday, December 18, from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. as we go caroling to local nursing homes.

CHRISTMAS EVE COMMUNION SERVICE & COOKIE AND PUNCH RECEPTION

Sunday, December 24, at 6:45 p.m. Harpist Sydney Howell will be playing a lengthy prelude of Christmas carols. There will be a cookie and punch reception after the Christmas Eve Service.

CHRISTMAS COOKIES FOR THE HOMEBOUND

Presbyterian Women will be packing Christmas cookies for our homebound and nursing home members and friends on Sunday, December 10 following worship in the library. If you can help by either baking cookies, helping pack, or delivering them, please call the church office.

ANGEL TREE

The Angel Tree is located in the Coffee Area. If you would like to buy a gift for a needy family in our community, please take an angel, write down the number of the card you take in the folder provided, and bring back the unwrapped gift. For larger Angels, please drop off at Manna. Contact Kelly Baggett by email at kbaggett63@yahoo.com if you have questions.

WOMEN'S RETREAT GILMONT CAMP & CONFERENCE CENTER FEBRUARY 2-4, 2018

At the Women's Retreat, February 2-4, 2018, we will provide space for conversations about our purpose, no matter our age or stage in life, and how that purpose frames the way we look to the future. We welcome our leader, Edwina Thomas, Christian disciple, learner, and prayer warrior. Together we will explore how we can position ourselves to live out Ephesians 2:10 and see "heaven's poetry etched on lives" – after all who wouldn't want to claim such a wonderful promise? Cost is $150 per person for cabin stay and $180 per person for lodge rooms. Be planning and thinking about whether you would like to go this year and watch for more details later. This is a great time to bond with other women from Grace Presbytery, explore your faith, and relax in the piney woods of east Texas.

FRED AND BARBARA RYLE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Sunday, December 31 is the 5th Sunday of the month. As approved by Session (4-20-17), all undesignated cash in offering plate will be deposited in the Fred and Barbara Ryle Scholarship account until the fund reaches the disbursement threshold or until modified by the Council.

Christmas Eve Reception—Following the Christmas Eve service, the congregation will gather in the Great Hall for punch and cookies.

*May hope, peace, joy and love fill your home and heart!
Wishing you a blessed Advent.*

CHRIST-CENTERED CHRISTMAS

WAYS TO TURN A SEASON OF CONSUMPTION INTO A SEASON OF JUST LIVING

Adapted from the Reclaiming Advent and Christmas guide from Presbyterian Hunger Program, Special to Presbyterians Today

As Christmas approaches, we face many choices regarding shopping, schedules and more. In addition to consumer dilemmas, we are faced with spiritual dilemmas. On one hand, we want to observe Advent and wait for the Christ child. On the other, we want to shop and wrap and bake — and we run ourselves ragged in the process.

The following ideas from the Presbyterian Hunger Program are designed to help Presbyterians celebrate the birth of Christ in more meaningful ways than mainstream culture provides. Incorporate one, two or all of these ideas into your holiday celebrations. Share with family and friends. And when the holidays are over, turn these ideas into 2018 resolutions.

CARING FOR SELF AND OTHERS

Pray and Renew

Holidays can be a great time to teach, learn and write new prayers. Consider your family's everyday prayer life, too. Rotate who prays before each meal from person to person, year to year, so everyone has an opportunity to pray.

Tell Stories

Encourage questions and conversations about holiday traditions past and present. Discuss the origin of traditions as you engage in them. Retell the story of the birth of Christ as you set a Nativity scene.

Remember

Take time to remember loved ones who have passed on. Recall stories to honor each one. If you have experienced a recent loss, allow time to grieve and care for yourself. Reach out to those you know are mourning or missing someone special this season.

Retreat and Rest

Treat yourself to quiet time and a change of pace. Incorporate prayer, views of nature, art — whatever feeds your soul and engenders holy rest in this holy season.

ALTERNATIVE GIFT GIVING

Share Talents

Give the gift of your talents to loved ones this year. If you have a knack for crafts, music or dance, pass that knowledge along. Gifting a series of lessons empowers the people you love with new skills while passing on traditions and heritage.

Give gifts from your garden

Providing seeds or cuttings from your own garden, teaching someone to garden, or helping someone plan a garden are all great gifts.

Homemade Gifts

Knitted items, framed photos, handcrafted toys, works of art and other personally made gifts show care and concern for the recipients because they require time and thought to create.

For more ideas, please visit <https://www.presbyterianmission.org/story/1217-justxmas>.

DECORATION FUND & COMPASSION FUND OPPORTUNITY

You have the opportunity this year to contribute $10 (or more) to either the Decoration Fund or the Compassion Fund in memory of or in honor of a loved one. Donations to both funds will be listed in a dedication booklet to be included with the bulletins on December 10, December 17, and Christmas Eve.

The Church Decoration Fund is used to buy poinsettias, Easter lilies, and other decorations throughout the year.

The Compassion Fund helps with groceries, utility bills, and prescriptions and clothing for those in need in our community.

Please fill out the form below and along with a check or cash, return to the church office no later than Wednesday, December 6.

Poinsettias may be taken to our homebound and nursing home members and friends after the Christmas Eve worship service.
